Renee Beauchamp, 34, of 302 West 107th street, a trained nurse, was sentenced to thirty days in the workhouse by Magistrate Nolan in Tombs Court yesterday. She was charged with disorderly conduct, the proprietor of a restaurant at 13 New Chambers street alleging that while in his place early yesterday morning she threw a stuffed pepper at a waiter and broke a plate glass window.

A resolution was adopted last night the quarterly meeting of the Bar ociation of the City of New York oring a provision that the defendant civil actions be compelled to decide hin ten days of the time the legal dion begins whether a trial by jury is sired. The desire of the defendant for trial by jury, the resolution said, louid be made in writing within the adjusted time, and if no such action is aken it is then to be inferred that a trial by jury is not desired.

James Byrne, president of the association, presided.

Jules W. Arnstein, better known as Nicky" Arnstein, who was indicted for grand larceny nearly three years ago in connection with a $5,000,000 bond theft in Wall Street, will probably be tried here in the near future, according to District Attorney Joab H. Banton, who yesterday sent all the papers in the case to Hugo Wintney, Assistant District Attorney, with instructions to prepare the case for trial if the evidence warranted, Arnstein was convicted before a Federal court in Washington, D. C., but that case is now on appeal.

Arnstein was convicted before a Federal court in Washington, D. C., but that case is now on appeal.

Judge McIntyre, who recently discharged Arnstein's ball of $25,000, said at the time that unless the case was brought to trial within sixty days he would dismise the indictment.

It was said yesterday that Mr. Minter would probably have the assistant of former Assistant District Attorney John T. Dooling and Saul Myers, who represented the bonding companies, in the preparation of the case.
